Alumni
Hall of Fame
Dave Mildenstein '66

Dave Mildenstein was inducted into the Central Catholic Alumni Hall of Fame at the All School Reunion on August 3rd. Dave is a member of the Class of 1966.

Dave and his wife Priscilla raised their three children, Ryan, Matt and Courtney in California. They have two grandsons.

With certification as a brick mason, Dave took pride in the building of many commercial buildings from Los Angeles to

San Diego and Palm Springs.

In 2000 the family agreed to move back to Nebraska. He began work with the Grand Island Public School system and became head custodian at Barr Jr High.

While working at Barr Dave attended a reunion at GICC and decided then to accept a part time position at his alma mater. He wanted "his" school to glow as he remembered it. Following the footsteps of Harry McConnell who kept the halls shining during the 60's and 70's , the polish and shine we see today come from Dave's go get'em attitude and drive. Dave himself is a shining example of Crusader pride for students, faculty and staff.

GICC Reunions 2012

Summer 2012 was celebration time for Crusaders. An All School Social was held on Friday, August 3rd at Central Catholic.

Classes hosted additional parties all around Grand Island during the summer. The Class of 62 could be heard at Sutter Deli, 2002 was spotted at the Chicken Coop, '72 danced the night away at the Venue, and '77 made their appearances at the Rick & Jan Brown home in Capital Heights. Faces might change a bit, but that Crusader spirit lives on.
